CONTENT CREATION

METHODOLOGY

SECONDARY RESEARCH

- Content Marketing focuses on creating valuable, relevant, and consistent content (blogs, videos, guides, storytelling).
- It helps increase brand awareness, lead generation, and ultimately, sales.
- Works on reciprocity (giving value first) & cognitive fluency (ease of understanding).
- Businesses that blog consistently see 67% more leads/month (Content Marketing Institute, 2023).
- Builds organic visibility + thought leadership, not just sales.

PRIMARY RESEARCH

- In-depth discussions with co-founders to understand the Origins of brand; Founders' journey before Kosha; Guiding philosophy & values
- Competitor analysis was done for Amyra, Papa Don't Preach, Lovetobag, The Pink Potli and the Observed trend → founder-led storytelling (podcasts, BTS, "What's in My Bag," founder story videos).

PROCESS FLOW

FINDINGS

- House of Kosha lacked a storytelling infrastructure (no blog, limited founder visibility on social media). This created a gap in customer engagement and authenticity.
- Blog page is critical for boosting credibility, SEO & deeper customer connect.
- Founder-led storytelling is most relatable & high-impact for fashion/accessory brands.
- LinkedIn presence positions brand as professional & authentic, beyond Instagram.
- Structured video content creates a long-term content bank, reduces ad-hoc shoots.

IMPLEMENTATION

- Blog page was designed & launched with authentic brand stories.
- LinkedIn was fully managed with weekly posts, engagement handling & consistent brand voice.
- Video shoot was executed to build a long-term “Founder’s Friday” content library
- 14+ episodes filmed in one day with a professional photographer.

The Hands That Built Kosha

Jul 27, 2025 House Of Kosha Kosha 0 Comments

We speak about design a lot. About new shapes, trends, launches. But the truth is — we can design all we want, and yet, without them, the artisans, the hands behind, nothing would come to life. We designed it, sure. But they actualised it. They made it happen.

Going Head-To-Head With The Big Names

Jul 27, 2025 House Of Kosha Kosha 0 Comments

Walking into one of our first big exhibitions felt like stepping onto a fashion battlefield. We were surrounded by the giants — Tarun Tahiliani, Torani, Anushree Reddy. Their booths were plush, their teams polished, PR teams, glossy branding, flawless packaging, massive budgets with everything perfectly in place.

INTERNATIONAL MARKETPLACE OUTREACH

METHODOLOGY

SECONDARY RESEARCH

- Cross-border e-commerce to reach $7.9T by 2030 (Grand View Research, 2023).
- 57% of online shoppers have purchased internationally (Payoneer, 2023).
- Marketplaces provide logistics, currency conversion, customer service & localized visibility.
- Indian exporters on Amazon Global Selling crossed $8B in cumulative sales (ET, 2023).
- Trusted marketplaces reduce perceived risk vs standalone websites.

PRIMARY RESEARCH

- Systematic online research across marketplace websites, brand portals, and retail store listings.
- Compiled details including Brands onboard, Country of operation, Email IDs, and Contact persons of 100+ marketplaces.
- Verified authenticity of sources through multiple checks (official sites, LinkedIn, terms & conditions page).

PROCESS FLOW

IMPLEMENTATION

- Successfully onboarded on Mirraw International, Carma, Agashe, Auraaya, and Sia Bridal.
- Ongoing negotiations with additional marketplaces for future collaborations.
- Key exhibitions identified included India Trunk Show, The Fuss, Ink & Silk, Pandora, Gossip girls, Sassy Bae, among others.

CELEBRITIES, INFLUENCERS & STYLISTS OUTREACH

METHODOLOGY

SECONDARY RESEARCH

- 82% of consumers trust influencers over ads; 87% report being inspired to purchase by influencer content.
- Micro-influencers deliver up to 60% higher engagement rates than larger influencers.
- Celebrity endorsements leverage the halo effect, boosting credibility, recall, and sales (up to 4× increase).
- 71–76% consumers are more likely to purchase products endorsed by celebrities

PRIMARY RESEARCH

- Curated outreach lists of over 150 influencers, celebrities and stylists, each with contact info, social media presence, audience profile, and brand alignment.
- Built structured master sheets for systematic outreach and follow-ups.

PROCESS FLOW

IMPLEMENTATION

- Successful collaborations established with well-known names like Maggi Himani, Nikki Mehra, Raveena Tandon, Kritika Khurana, Dolly Jain, Kishwer Merchant and more.
- These partnerships significantly boosted brand visibility

PRODUCT ENHANCEMENT

METHODOLOGY

SECONDARY RESEARCH

- Studied branded charms from leading global accessory brands.
- Focused on engraving styles, finishes, and integration of charms into product lines.
- Insights ensured alignment with global practices while retaining unique brand identity.

PRIMARY RESEARCH

- Created multiple digital prototypes, experimenting with branding placements.
- Conducted vendor search via sourcing platforms, references, and online channels.
- Engaged in direct vendor communication for quotations, sampling feasibility, cost comparisons, and bulk negotiation.

PROCESS FLOW

SUGGESTIONS

- Finalize the selected vendor and proceed with bulk sampling and testing.
- Introduce the charm across core bag categories to create uniform brand identity.
- Use the charm as a marketing tool by highlighting it in product shoots and packaging.
- Explore seasonal or limited-edition variations of the charm to create exclusivity.

CHALLENGES FACED

- Handling complex linesheet preparation for multiple stores with different format requirements.
- Following up with consignment partners who often had delayed responses or last-minute requirements.
- Managing inventory checks and labeling for large exhibition shipments.
- Low response rates from outreach, requiring persistent follow-ups without seeming pushy.
- Managing simultaneous tasks across creative (content, branding), operational (Shopify, logistics), and strategic (outreach, ads) areas.
- Adjusting to the fast-paced, unstructured environment of a growing startup.

OTHER TASKS

- Consolidation of customer database consisting 400+ customers in a master sheet.
- Drove engagement through WhatsApp Business by Targeting existing buyers, Re-engaging potential customers with abandoned carts, & Following up with exhibition leads.
- Processing orders and Generating invoices
- Updating inventory
- Creating new SKUs for products
- Preparing line sheets for stores, consignment, exhibitions, and marketplaces
- Performing thorough Quality control (QC) checks
- Created Instagram posts, reels, and stories; developed a content planner for Instagram.
- Published linkedin posts on the weekly basis, and handling communications.
- Managed Instagram engagement (DMs, comments, reposts) in collaboration with the agency.

BENEFITS TO COMPANY

- Inventory management streamlined through a structured master sheet tracking sales, consignments, exhibitions, and barter orders.
- Successful onboarding of new marketplaces and stores, including Sia Bridal, Auraaya, Agashe, Fuel the Store, and Citrine, among others.
- Successful influencers and stylist collaborations.
- Instagram following grew from 12k to 14k, reflecting stronger engagement.
- Backend inconsistencies corrected to ensure smooth product listings and order management.
- Blog page launched to showcase brand stories and improve digital presence.
- Weekly sales increased from an average of 4–5 orders per week to nearly 30 orders in a given week, demonstrating tangible business growth.

BENEFITS TO SELF

- Hands-on experience with Shopify: SKU creation, inventory management, theme customization, product grouping, and visual merchandising.
- Practical exposure to generating invoices, managing logistics partners, and processing prepaid and COD (Cash on Delivery) orders.
- Acquired the ability to adapt in high-pressure and fast-paced environments.
- Improved time management and problem-solving skills.
- Learned to balance operational efficiency with creative execution, understanding how backend processes support consumer-facing growth.
- Gained a comprehensive perspective on managing a Direct-to-Consumer (D2C) fashion brand, spanning design, operations, marketing, and customer engagement.
